Beefers capture 2014 OAPBA crown with sweep over Otters; First-ever title for longtime manager Rod Caborn

Taz Devils Dave Larson notched league best 46-32 record, but Tazzies upset in playoffs

Rod Caborn's (L) Beefers (43-35), the second oldest active franchise in OAPBA, finally won their first championship in 2014, defeating Jonathan Stiwell's Otters (43-35), who made it to the World Series in the franchise's fourth year of operation.

The Beefers, seeded fourth in the 2014 playoffs, roared through the playoffs, taking four of six to upset Dave Larson's top-ranked Taz Devils (46-32), and then sweeping the Otters in four games to win the 2014 World Series. Caborn's 2014 crown ended Joe Passiatore's remarkable stretch of six consecutive OAPBA championships (2008-2013). Joe's retirement from active play in OAPBA guaranteed a different team would win the league championship 2014.

The Otters, managed by Jonathan Stilwell (right) roared to a 28-11 finish in the 2014 regular season to tie for second with Walt Taylor's Whatever's (43-35) and Caborn's Beefers. In the first round of the playoffs, the Otters, facing the Whats, lost the opener, but were victorious in the next four games to advance to the 2014 series.

For the majority of the 2014 season Steven Korb's Turfbeaters (39-39) resided in first place, but a late season collapse by the Turfies dropped them to .500, four games out of the playoff race. It was the second time in the past three seasons that the Turfies ended the season at .500, just missing the playoffs.

Marc Bostrom's Road Warriors (33-45) hit only .196 for the season and wound up 13 games behind the front-running Taz Devils.

Dave Mitchell's Piranhas (26-52) slogged through their eighth losing season in a row and fourth straight season with 50 or more losses, but with a base of young players acquired through four straight first round picks, kept looking forward to a more hopeful future.

Miguel Cabrera becomes OAPBA's first batting Triple Crown winner

Whatever 3b Miguel Cabrera won MVP honors for 2014, becoming the first batter in league history to capture the batting Triple Crown. For starters, Cabrera led the league in batting (.318), HR (23) and RBIs (61). Cabrera also topped league batters in on-base percentage (.419, and tied with Devils CF Shin-Soo Choo) for the slugging lead (.631). Cabrera was third in base hits (81), seventh in runs scored (37) and fourth in bases on balls (42).

The Taz Devils Clayton Kershaw was equally as dominant on the mound, winning the pitcher's Triple Crown by leading the league in wins (12-3), ERA (1.96) and tying for the league lead in strikeouts (115) with Beefer righty Max Scherzer. Kershaw led in innings pitched (124.0), but also surrendered the greatest number of bases on balls (53). Kershaw was the first pitcher to win the pitcher's Triple Crown since the Highlanders Greg Maddux in 1995 and the first pitcher to win as many as 12 games in a season since the Platoon's Chris Carpenter went 13-1 in 2010.

OAPBA turned 27 years old in 2014

OAPBA completed its 27th season in 2014, making the league one of the most successful, longest-operating face-to-face leagues in all of APBAdom. The league first began play in 1988 with Joe Passiatore, Joel Prinsell, Bryant Applegate, and Steve Lorman.

None of the original Founding Fathers remain active in the league. Currently Caborn and Dave Larson, whose Taz Devils started in 1991, are the league's longest-operating managers. Walt Taylor's Whatevers, which started as the Metropolitanans, is the league's longest-operating franchise, playing continuously since the league began in 1988.

For 2014, there were changes aplenty. Joe Passiatore (Platoon II) and Kris Stenger (Gashouse Gang) both dropped out of the league, reducing the number of operating franchises to seven.

The Platoon roster was redistributed among the remaining seven franchises while Stenger's franchise was put on a "hold" status, with the roster maintained for the 2014 season (including the 2014 draft), although the franchise was inactive for league play.

For 2014, The three division setup dropped in favor of a seven-team, one league set up. The schedule was reduced to 78 games, from 80 games, with a break at 39 games to allow three roster changes. The top four teams qualified for the '14 playoffs.

2014 Regular Season

First half: Korb's Turfbeaters take command

Steven Korb's (left) Turfbeaters, after a 3-5 start, took four of five from Rod Caborn's Beefers in their third series of the season, launching them on a 17-4 run that put them atop the standings for the entire first half.

During their 17-4 run, Turfbeaters pitching only allowed 33 runs. In their final series however, in five games vs. the Whatevers, Turfie pitchers took a holiday, giving up 32 runs in the five-game series, with the only Turfie win a 13-1 rout of the Whats. Despite losing four of five to the Whatevers to end the first half, the Turfbeaters looked like they might run away with the 2014 pennant.

After the end of the first 39 games, the Turfies (24-15) had a two-game lead over Dave Larson's Taz Devils and a three-game lead over Walt Taylor's Whatevers.

Both the Devils, who won five of their last seven, and the Whats, who won six of their final nine games in the first half appeared to be gaining momentum for a second half run, but it was questionable whether or not they could overtake the red-hot Turfbeaters.

Rod Caborn's Beefers hovered around .500, disrupted by a six-game losing streak near the end of the half, ending at 20-19 for the half, four games behind the league-leading Turfs.

Marc Bostrom's Road Warriors suffered from road weariness resulting from four extraordinary first-half extra-inning losses, all on the road, three of them to the Piranhas. The Moss Park team lost 6-5 to the Beefers (19 innings). Then then dropped two marathon decision to the Piranhas, 4-3 (17 innings) and 3-2 (13 innings). As if two marathon losses to the Piranhas were not enough, the Roadies ended the first half on the short end of a 1-0 15-inning loss to the Piranhas, which snapped a Road Warrior four-game winning streak, giving them a 17-22 record at the end of the half.

Dave Mitchell's (right) Piranhas almost got to .500 at 14-16, winning back-to-back extra inning games (4-3 in 17 innings and 3-2 in 13 innings) against the Road Warrior, but lost seven of their last nine contests to slip to 16-23 to finish the first half.

After a promising 10-8 start, Jonathan Stillwell's Otters dropped 12 of their final 16 games, including a five-game losing streak to end the first half at 14-20, and apparently to out of the running for a playoff slot. (Note: the Otters had a 34-game first half).

The biggest offensive explosion in the first half was a 14-5 win by the Whatevers against the Taz Devils, led by three-run homers by the Whats' Shane Victorino and Joe Mauer. The Turfbeaters were on the losing end of two the league's three biggest offensive explosions in one game in the first half. The Beefers won two of the lopsided wins, 13-4 vs. the Turfbeaters and 13-2 v. the Turfbeaters, while the Turfs were the winners in a 13-1 final series win against the Whatevers.

Second half: Taz Devils overtake Turfies. Otters come out of nowhere to finish in three-way tie for second place

The second half of the 2014 season was one for the ages in OAPBA. Highlights included:

- The steady play of Taz Larson's Taz Devils, who were able to catch the Turfbeaters and finish first in regular season play.
- An incredible run by Jonathan Stillwell's Otters to capture a playoff berth.
- A collapse by Steven Korb's Turfbeaters, who saw their first half lead evaporate.
- A season-ending three-way deadlock for second place that resulted in a controversial seeding for the playoffs.
- A second half swoon by the Piranhas that saw them record their fourth straight 50-loss season.

Dave Larson's (right) Taz Devils, hovering just below first, won nine of their first 12 games to open the half, improving to 31-20. After a split with the Beefs, The Tazzies won three of four from the Whatever's and swept the Piranhas. The Devils, however, gave it right back, suffering a four-game sweep by the Otters, and an opening game loss in a series against the Turfs, falling back to 31-25. The Devils won their next three games from the Turfies and roared down the stretch at 15-7 to win the regular season standings.

Steven Korb's Turfbeaters, after an outstanding first half, dropped three of five to the Devils to start the second half, but rebounded to win six of their next eight to put their record at 32-20. From that point, forward, however the bottom fell out. The Turfs went 7-19 the rest of the way, including losses in nine of their final 10 contests, to fall out of the playoffs. Although they finished a respectable 39-39, the season was a disappointment because of the second-half collapse that cost them a shot at the title.

(Note: the Turfbeaters were managed by various managers during the second half because of business commitments by Korb, but the team was managed aggressively and competitively with no letup on their opposition).

Walt Taylor's (L) Whatever's dropped eight of 11 to start the second half, but moved into contention by winning nine of 11, including a five game win streak. Later, after losing five games in a row, including a sweep by the Beefs, the Whatever's fell to 35-34. However, they hit the final turn at full speed, winning eight of nine, including, four of five from the Otters, in Whoville, in their final series, highlighted by a grueling 5-4, 12-inning victory. What righty Matt Harvey threw a final game 5-0 shutout to tie the Whats and Otters at 43-35, but both teams had company in the final standings.

Rod Caborn's Beefers fell to 23-24 after a 4-5 start to the second half, but a six-game win streak, including three of four wins against the Whatevers, seemed to put them back on track. The Beefs then dropped seven of the next 12 and, with four games left, a record of 39-35 and losing sight of the playoffs, the Beefers stunned the Whatevers in a four-game sweep to finish tied for second at 43-35.

With no one paying much attention, Jonathan Stillwell's Otters won five of their first 10 games in the second half to improve to 19-25. The Otters then took off on a seven-game winning streak, including a four-game sweep over the Taz Devils, to get into the winning column at 26-25. The streak ended with a 3-1 loss to the Roadies Madison Bumgarner, who threw a five-hitter.

After splitting their next two games, the Otters took off on another seven-game win streak, ending with a 5-2 loss to Turfbeater righthander Julio Teheran, to reach 34-27, putting them in a tight battle with the Taz Devils for the league lead. The Otters kept the pressure on, winning eight of their next 11 for a worst-to-first turnaround at 42-31.

Marc Bostrom's (right) Road Warriors started off the second half by going 11-11 to make their record 28-33, only five games short of .500. A 13-4 pounding by the Whatevers, however, seemed to send the Roadies off the cliff, losing 12 of their final 17 games to finish in sixth place at 33-45, thirteen games behind the Taz Devils.

Dave Mitchell's Piranhas, fighting to avoid their fourth consecutive 50-loss season, began the second half on a positive note, with lefty Cliff Lee beating the Beefers 7-4. The Fish then spiraled into a seven-game losing streak that ended when 2b Robinson Cano slammed three home runs to lead the Piranhas to a 9-3 win over the Otters. Ervin Santana then blanked the 3-0 Otters 3-0, but the Piranhas then lost their next six a row, three in extra innings, before edging the Turfs 6-5 in 13 innings. The Fish then fell into another six game losing streak, scoring only six runs, before Santana once again came to the rescue, shutting out the Road Warriors 2-0 on three hits. The Piranhas then dropped 11 of their last sixteen games, finishing at 26-52 for the 2014 season.

2014 Semi-final playoffs

Beefers upset top-seeded Taz Devils to advance to '14 Series

Devils RF Will Venable hit 11-22, .500 and slammed three HRs for the series, but it was not enough to

The first round of the 2014 playoffs opened with an upset, with Rod Caborn's Beefers (43-35) surprising Taz Larson's Taz Devils (46-32) in six games.

Statistically, the Devils outplayed the Beefers in almost everything in the series. The Devils outhit the Beefers (.252 to .226), had a better OBP (.336 to .265) and outscored the Beefers 34-33 in the six-game series. On the hill, the Devils team ERA was better than the Beefers (4.14 to 4.87).

The Beefers made up the difference in power (10 HE to eight for the Devils) and on defense (two errors versus 10 for the Devils). The Devils defense allowed four unearned runs in the series, which turned out to be a weak link for the Tazzies.

The Beefers (43-35) had tied for second in the regular season standings, but were relegated to the fourth-place seed, based on total runs scored during the regular season, which put the Beefers (301 runs) behind the Whatevers (317) and Otters (307). The Taz Devils (46-32) had the best record in 2014.

Game 1 Taz Devils 10, Beefers 3

The Tazzies pounded the Beefs 10-3 in the opener with Will Venable leading the way with a pair of home runs and a double and three RBIs. Brian McCann and Paul Goldschmidt also homered as the Devils pounded Beefeer starter Hisashi Iwakuma for six runs in four innings. Alex Cobb went five innings for the Devils to get the win, with relievers Dan Otero and David Carpenter finishing things after the Devils had built up a 8-2 lead.

Beefs 3-7-0 L- Hisashi Iwakuma 0-1. HR Jason Kipnis (1), Chris Davis (1)
 Devils 10-9-0 W-Alex Cobb 1-0. HR Will Venable 2 (1, 2), Goldschmidt (1), B. McCann (1)

Game 2 Beefers 8, Taz Devils 4

Beefeer RHP Max Scherzer went seven innings, giving up four runs, but received plenty of offensive support, led by Carlos Gonzalez, who hit a grand slam HR off Devils starter Jordan Zimmermann in the second, giving the Beefers a 5-0 lead. Later, J.J. Hardy singled a run home, Matt Wieters doubled in a run, and Michael Cuddyer hit a solo shot in the ninth as the Beefs coasted to even the series.

Beefs 8-13-1 W- Max Scherzer 1-0 (11 Ks). HR Carlos Gonzalez (1, grand slam).
 Devils 4-9-3 L-Jordan Zimmermann 0-1.

Game 3 Beefers 7, Taz Devils 4

Shifting to the Beefeer Bowl, the Beefers came from behind for a 7-4 win and a 2-1 series lead. In the third, the Devils jumped on Mat Latos for a 4-0 lead on a three-run HR by Brandon Moss and an RBI single by Shin-Soo Choo, who had three hits in the game.

With Clayton Kershaw, the league's winningest pitcher on the mound for the Devils. The four-run lead looked insurmountable. The Beefs rebounded, however, on two-run HRs by Adrian Beltre and Yan Gomes and, in the 7th inning, with David Carpenter on the hill for the Tazzies, a Devils defensive meltdown that saw two Devils error lead to three Beefeer runs, highlighted by a two-run single by Yasiel Puig. The Devils wound up with three miscues, the second straight game in which they committed three errors.

Devils 4-6-3 L- Clayton Kershaw 0-1. HR Brandon Moss (1).
 Beefs 7-8-0 W -Javier Lopez 1-0. Sv Tanner Scheppers (1). HR Yan Gomes (1), Adrian Beltre (1).

Game 4 Taz Devils 7, Beefers 4

With the scored tied at four apiece in the 7th inning, the Devils ripped Beefeer reliever Seth Maness with an RBI single by hot-hitting Shin-Soo Choo and a three-run HR by Paul Goldschmidt to pull ahead 7-4. Relievers Dan Otero and Mark Melancon kept the Beefers off the board the final three innings for the win, tying the series at two games apiece.

Devils 7-9-3 W- Dan Otero 1-0. Sv Mark Melancon (1). HR Goldschmidt (2), Brandon Moss (2).
 Beefs 4-6-1 L -Seth Maness 0-1. HR Andrew McCutchen (1).

Game 5 Beefers 4, Taz Devils 2

Beefeer ace Hisashi Iwakuma, ripped in game two, settled down in Game Five, going seven-plus innings, allowing only two runs, including a HR by Will Venable, to give the Beefers a 3-2 edge in the series. The Beefs scored three in the fourth inning on an RBI single by J.J. Hardy and two-run HR by Matt Wieters, off Devils starter Alex Cobb. After Iwakuma tired in the 8th, relievers Brad Ziegler and Bobby Parnell finished off the Devils to give the Beefers a 3-2 edge in the series.

Devils 2-7-1 L- Alex Cobb 1-1. HR Will Venable (3).
 Beefs 4-8-0 W- Hishashi Iwakuma 1-1. Sv Bobby Parnell (1). HR Matt Wieters (1).

RHP Max Scherzer won two games as the Beefs made it past the Taz Devils in the playoffs first round.

Game 6 Beefers 6, Taz Devils 5

In a classic rock 'em, sock 'em battle at Yosemite Park, the Beefers outlasted the Devils 6-5 to win the first round playoff and advance to the World Series.

The Devils jumped out in front 3-0 on a two-run double by Will Venable and an RBI single by Matt Carpenter in the second inning, all off Beef starter Max Scherzer. The Beefs countered in the next inning, however, on a Carlos Gonzalez and a two-run triple by Chris Davis.

With the game tied at three in the fifth, Adrian Beltre greeted Devils reliever Neal Cotts, in for Zimmermann, with a three-run HR to make it 6-3 in favor of the Beefs. The Devils scored two in the bottom of the 8th on another RBI double by Venable and another RBI single by Carpenter, cutting the lead to one run. The Beefer bullpen combo of Javier Lopez and Bobby Parnell, however, put the Devils away in order in the ninth for the win.

Beefers 3b Adrian Beltre's three-run HR in the 5th inning of Game Six gave the Beefers a lead that they never relinquished. Beltre hit two HRs in the playoff series.

Beefs 6-8-0 W- Max Scherzer 2-0. Sv Bobby Parnell (2). HR Adrian Beltre (2), Carlos Gonzalez (2).
Devils 5-11-1 L- Jordan Zimmermann 0-2. Will Venable 3-3, 2 doubles, 3 RBIs, Mt. Carpenter 3 hits.

Otters surprise Whatever's in five games; seize spot in World Series in fourth season

Jonathan Stillwell's Otters, seeded third, capped off a remarkable second-half run by surprising the Walt Taylor's second-seeded Whatever's (43-35) in five games to advance to the 2104 World Series in only their fourth season of operation.

After the Whats won the opener 2-1, it was all Otters, who won the next four games in a row.

A tough 3-2 Otters win in 10 innings in Game Two and an 8-7 come-from-behind Otters victory in Game Three seemed to take the starch out of the Whats, who generated only eight hits and three runs in the final two games.

The highlight of the series was the series-clinching 3-0 one-hitter by the Otters Bartolo Colon (above), who had a no-hitter going into the eighth inning, before a single by Whats LF Michael Bradley broke it up.

Game 1 Whats 2, Otters 1

Whatever ace Zack Greinke and Otters RHP Bartolo Colon kept scoring low in the opener. The Otters worked Greinke for two walks and a single with only one out in the first. But with the bases loaded, Greinke got Miguel Montero to hit into a double play to get out of the jam. Likewise, What C Joe Mauer was thrown out trying to score on a Joey Votto single in the bottom of the first. But the Whats scored in the 2nd when Dustin Pedroia doubled home Michael Brantley on a hit and run play. Then Pedroia stole second base after a single in the fourth, and came home on a double by Andrelton Simmons.

The Otters tried to come back in the sixth, when Omar Infante tripled, and Jose Bautista singled him home. But that was all the scoring to be had for the Otters, as What reliever Luis Avilan shut down the Otters over the last two innings.

Otters 1-6-0 L- Bartolo Colon 0-1.
Whats 2-7-0 W-Zack Greinke 1-0. SV Luis Avilan 1.

Game 2 Otters 3, Whats 2 (10 innings)

The Otters Jose Fernandez faced off against the Whats Adam Wainwright.. Freddie Freeman set the tone for the game with a solo HR in the first inning. The Otters added another run in the fourth with singles by Infante, Nava and Machado. The Otters led 2-0 until the 7th, when Miguel Cabrera homered to cut the lead in half, making it 2-1.

In the ninth, the Otters called on closer Joe Nathan. But with one out, What 1b Joey Votto smashed a HR in to the Whoville bleachers to tie the game. In the 10th, Montero pinch hit for Nathan and laced a double. Mike Trout moved the runner to 3rd with a grounder to short. Jean Segura then laid down a surprise suicide squeeze bunt, and beat it out for a single, driving in Montero on the play. J.P. Howell came in and got the last three outs for the Otters to earn the save and tie the series at one game each.

Otters 3-10 W- Joe Nathan 1-0. SV J.P. Howell 1. HR Freddie Freeman (1).
Whats 2-6-1 L-Cody Allen 0-1. HR Joey Votto (1), Miguel Cabrera (1).

Game 3 Otters 8, Whats 7

The action moved to the Otters' Frank Selee Field with Matt Harvey for the Whats and original Otter Hiroki Kuroda pitching his first playoff game. The Whats pounced on Kuroda in the first with Votto, Michael Brantley and Shane Victorino all getting hits and Adam Jones capping off the scoring with a 3R HR for a 4-0 Whatever lead. But the Otters were determined not to let the game get away from them, and Mike Trout tripled to lead off the game and scored on an Omar Infante single. After Joe Bautista singled, Daniel Nava scored Infante on a sac fly and Jason Heyward added a two run HR. The Otters had tied the score.

The relentless Whats scored single runs each of the next three innings, but with the Whats up 7-4, a win looked unlikely for the Otters.

But, leading off the fifth, Otter 2b Omar Infante signaled that the Otters were still alive, hitting a HR. Jean Segura tripled in the 6th and pinch-hitter Sal Perez laced a hit-and-run single to score another run and cut the What lead to 7-6. Meanwhile, Justin Wilson and Craig Breslow held the Whats in check, keeping the game within reach. In the bottom of the 8th, Heyward led off with a walk. Two batters later, Manny Machado hit a pinch-hit 2b, tying the game when Heyward came home. Then Mike Trout, after having struck out twice and hit into the rally killing double play earlier in the game, hit a go-ahead double, giving the Otters an 8-7 lead.

Joe Nathan again was called on to close the game. After Nathan retired Mauer and Votto, he intentionally walked Miguel Cabrera, and the Whats countered with pinch-hitter Edwin Encarnacion, who doubled, putting runners on 2nd and 3rd. With the game on the line, Shane Victorino flied to center, giving the Otters an unlikely come-from-behind 8-7 win and 2-1 lead in the series.

Otters 8-12-1 W -Craig Breslow 1-0. Sv Tanner Scheppers (1). HR Jason Heyward (1), Omar Infante (1).

Game 4 Otters 4, Whats 3

The Otters struck first when Trout doubled, Nava singled, with both on an SF from Jose Bautista, and a single by Jean Segura. After that, What starter Yu Darvish settled down, setting the Otters down weakly over the next three innings. The Whats greeted Otter starter, Homer Bailey rudely in the 3rd with a walk, a Mauer single and another HR from Joey Votto. In the Otters' 5th, Daniel Nava walked, Freddie Freeman singled, and then Adam Jones misplayed a Joey Bats single, allowing it to roll past him, and two runners to scamper home. With the Otters up 4-3, Brandon Kintzler closed it for the Otters, putting them up 3-1 in the series.

Whats 3-7-2 L- Yu Darvish. HR Joey Votto (2).
Otters 4-8-0 W -Brandon Kintzler 1-0. Sv Craig Breslow (1).

Game 5 Otters 3, Whats 0

In a rematch of Game One, the Whats started Zack Greinke and Otters went with aging Bartolo Colon. On this occasion, Colon was the better of the two, throwing a one-hit masterpiece to lift the Otters into the 2014 World Series. Colon carried a no-hitter into the eighth, but it was broken up by a Michael Brantley single. Colon only walked one in the contest.

The Otters opened the scoring in the second, when Khris Davis walked, Montero doubled, and Jose Bautista lifted his third sacrifice fly of the series. Then Jean Segura doubled home a second run. The Otters tacked on an insurance run in the sixth when Infante singled in Freeman to make it 3-0.

Whats 0-1-0 L- Zack Greinke 0-2.

2014 World Series

Beefers sweep Otters to win 2014 World Series

Power, defense, and sound pitching keep Otters off balance, lead to four-game sweep of six Andrew McCutchen (L), with a pair of two-run homers in Game Three, and 4-13 with five RBIs in the four games, was named The Series MVP.

total runs scored for the season.

Rod Caborn's Beefers (43-35), after 24 seasons and 1,957 games in OAPBA, finally captured their first league championship, sweeping four straight from Jonathan Stillwell's Otters (43-35), Weds., Oct. 9.

The Beefs pitching kept the Otters off balance for the first three games, allowing only two runs. Over the four games, the Otters stranded 31 baserunners, repeatedly unable to come up with key hits necessary to drive runners home.

The Beefers, seeded fourth in the playoffs, went 8-2 in their two playoff series, relying on solid defense, power, and steady relief pitching, to end a remarkable run straight championships by OAPBA managerial legend Joe Passiatore, who did not manage in OAPBA in 2014.

Otters reached the Series by taking four of five from Walt Taylor's Whatever's (43-35), seeded second based on

Game 1 Beefers 2, Otters 1

Otter Mike Trout got the Otters off to a fast start with a leadoff homer off Mat Latos. Trout's HR, however, was as good as it got for the Otters as Latos went six innings, before giving way to three relievers, to edge the Otters 2-1.

Facing Otter ace Jose Fernandez, The Beefs tied the game in the second on an RBI double by Matt Wieters and took the lead in the third when Adrian Beltre singled home Andrew McCutchen. The Otters left seven men on base and had three batters hit into double plays, short-circuiting scoring opportunities in three different innings.

Beefers 2-6-1 W- Mat Latos 1-0. Sv Seth Maness 1

Game 2 Beefers 5, Otters 0

Beefers righty Chris Tillman combined with Seth Maness, Tanner Scheppers, and Brad Ziegler to blank the Otters in Game Two, winning 5-0 on a combined five-hitter. Once again, the Otters struggled to find a key hit, stranding nine baserunners.

The Beefs got to Otter starter Bartolo Colon, coming off a one-hit win against the Whats, in the third, with a two-run triple from Chris Davis and an RBI single from Andrew McCutchen. Beef C Yan Gomes punctuated the lead with a solo HR in the ninth to take a 2-0 Series lead.

Beefers 5-10-1 W- Seth Maness 1-0. HR Yan Gomes (1).
Otters 0-5-2 L-Bartolo Colon 0-1

Game 3 Beefers 6, Otters 1

Shifting to the Beefer Bowl, The Beefers took a 3-0 Series lead, piling up six runs off Otter starter Hiroki Kuroda in the first two innings, led by Andrew McCutchen, who hit pair of two-run HRs before running into the CF fence and leaving the game with an injury in the third. Beef C Matt Wieters also hit a two-run HR.

Beefer ace Hisashi Iwakuma carried a shutout into the ninth before Otter 3b Manny Machado doubled in Freddie Freeman for the Otters only run. Iwakuma scattered three hits, including doubles by pinch-hitter Chris Johnson and Machado, over the first eight innings, while fanning eight. The Otters again lacked a key hit with runners on base, leaving seven men on base.

Otters 1-6-0 L- Hiroki Kuroda 0-1.
Beefers 6-8-0 W- Hisashi Iwakuma. HR Andrew McCutchen 2 (1, 2). Matt Wieters (1).

Game 4 Beefers 5, Otters 4

Beefer C Yan Gomes (right) doubled home Ryan Raburn with two outs in the bottom of the ninth to climax a tense Game Four battle with a 5-4 Beefer win and a four-game sweep of the 2014 Fall Classic. The Beefers jumped out a 4-1 lead on two-run HRs by Adrian Beltre and J.J. Hardy in the second and third inning.

The Otters offense, however, came to life after slumping in the first three games. The Otters got to the Beefer bullpen for three runs in the sixth and seventh innings to tie the game. In the bottom of the ninth, with two out, Beefer pinch-hitter Ryan Raburn doubled off reliever Brandon Kintzler and, the next batter, Gomes doubled Raburn home with the game-winner and the 2014 OAPBA crown.

Otters 4-10-2 L- Brandon Kintzler 0-1.
Beefers 5-6-0 W- Ryan Cook 1-0. HR J.J. Hardy (1), Adrian Beltre (1).

Beefer C Yan Gomes was 2-3 in the Series, with a game-winning 2b and a HR.

Series notes:

Otters batters hit into five double plays in the first two games, short-circuiting potential rallies. Otters 2b Omar Infante hit into two of the double plays.

A botched hit-and-run cost the Otters dearly in Game One. With the Otters down 2-1, and one out and runners on first and third, Jean Segura fanned and Mike Trout was thrown out at second. The Otters offense never recovered from the lost opportunity and never got untracked in the first three games.

The Beefers benefited from better than expected starting pitching. Mat Latos pitched was able to go six innings in the opener, Chris Tillman only went 4.1 innings, but only allowed two hits while fanning eight, and Hisashi Iwakuma just missed a CG in Game Three, winning 6-1.

Yan Gomes hit a home run in his only AB in Game Two and delivered the Series-ending double, driving in Ryan Raburn, in the bottom of the ninth in Game Four.

Otters Freddie Freeman (6-17, .353.) and Omar Infante (5-15, .333) led all hitters in the '14 Series, but Mike Trout, with a leadoff HR in the team's first AB in the Series, hit the only HR for the Otters.

Whatever's Miguel Cabrera wins first-ever Triple Crown in OAPBA history

Whatever's slugger Miguel Cabrera was a one-man wrecking crew in 2014, leading OAPBA in all three primary batting categories to win the first Triple Crown in league history and easily win Most Valuable Player honors.

Cabrera dominated the statistics, but he also delivered when the Whatever's needed him the most, particularly in the second half.

Cabrera was a driving force behind the Whats drive to the playoffs. Just after the start of the second half, against the Otters, he hit four home runs in a series. Later, against the Piranhas, Cabrera banged out key late-inning hits in two consecutive games to lift the Whats to close wins.

Against the Road Warriors, Cabrera went deep twice in a 6-4 win. In a season ending series against the Otters, Cabrera saved his best for last, slamming three home runs in one game, as the Whatever's took a key 5-2 victory.

Cabrera easy choice for Most Valuable Player honors. Devils Kershaw voted top pitcher

The 2014 OAPBA All-Star team was highlighted by a great season from league's first-ever batting Triple Crown winner, Whatever 3b Miguel Cabrera. The right-handed slugger dominated the league's offensive categories and was a unanimous selection to the team at 3b and as the league MVP. Beefer 3b Adrian Beltre was named the second best 3b while no one else received a second place vote for MVP.

Devils LHP Clayton Kershaw won the league's pitching Triple Crown and was unanimously selected as the league's top starter. Beefer righthander Hisashi Iwakuma was second in the voting.

The league voted Turfbeater reliever Koji Uehara as the top fireman with Whatever closer Mariano Rivera, the league's all-time ERA and saves leader, and a three-time All-Star finishing second.

C Yadier Molina of the Turfbeatrs was voted the top backstop over longtime Whatever catcher Joe Mauer, a five-time All-Star and 2010 MVP.

The Taz Devils placed three other players on the all league squad, 1b Paul Goldschmidt, SS Ian Desmond, and CF Shin-Soo Choo, all first-time All-Star selections. Goldschmidt got four first place votes, beating out Otter Freddie Freeman and Whatever Joey Votto for the honors. Desmond got five of six votes with Turf SS Jhonny Peralta placing second. Choo also received five first place votes besting Whatever CF Adam Jones and Beefer Andrew McCutchen, the 2013 MVP.

Road Warrior LF Justin Upton got four of the six first place votes. Beefer Carlos Gonzalez, Otter Daniel Nava, and Devil Brandon Moss were also picked up votes. Right field was a tough selection with Turfbeater RF Carlos Beltran edging Otter Jose Bautista and Road Warrior Jayson Werth.

The Piranhas had the third unanimous selection in 2b Robinson Cano, a new member of the Piranhas after the redistribution of Passiatore's Platoon franchise. Cano was voted the leagues top second baseman for third time in the past four seasons. Otter Omar Infante and Devils 2b Chase Utley received second place votes.

The Taz Devils, whose 46 wins were tops in OAPBA, placed four players on the team, led by Kershaw. The Turfbeaters had three all-stars while three teams had one each. Interestingly, the two teams that reached the World Series, the Beefers and Otters, did not have a single player on the All-Star squad.

2014 OAPBA Draft

Piranhas draft #1 for third straight season; take 2b Robinson Cano as top pick

Dave Mitchell's Piranhas, drafting first in the league for the third straight season, took 2b Robinson Cano (L) available via the dispersal of the Platoon, with the first pick in the 2014 draft. Cano joined Piranha teammates OF Bryce Harper (2013) and P James Shields (2012) as the league's top draft picks over the past three seasons.

Jonathan Stilwell's Otters selected P Jose Fernandez with the second overall pick in the draft with C Yadier Molina, another former Platoon stalwart, going to Steven Korb's Turfbeaters. SS Hanley Ramirez was picked for the inactive Gang franchise. RF Wil Myers went fifth, taken by Marc Bostrom's Road Warriors. Rod Caborn's Beefers, drafting sixth, filled a hole in LF with Carlos Gonzalez and P Yu Darvish went seventh to Walt Taylor's Platoon. Caborn's Beefers, drafting eighth, after obtaining the pick in a trade with the Devils, grabbed RF Yasiel Puig. For the third straight year, the downtown Winter Park offices of Winderwheedle, Haines & Goodman were the scene of the annual OAPBA draft. The 2014 draft was held on Saturday, Feb. 1, and got underway promptly at 8:55 a.m. and ending at 10:35 a.m.

Inside the numbers

Whatever

The Whatever tied for the team lead in batting average, hitting .238 as a team and they had the league's best OBP at .322, helped by a league high 296 walks, 46 more than the second best team. The Whatever were second overall in runs scored. Even the Whatever pitchers got into the act, with the second-best team B.A. for pitchers, while leading OAPBA hurlers with 10 RBIs.

Individually four What hitters hit double figure homers, tying the Beefers for the most hitters to reach at least 10 four baggers. Speedy 2b Dusty Pedroia (left) surprisingly finished second in OAPBA in GIDPs. Whatever Carlos Quinten, when healthy enough to play, was the only player in the have more walks than strikeouts, 14 to 11.

Whatever 3b Chase Headley, normally a defensive replacement for Miggy Cabrera, had the second-most at bats among league hitters without driving in a run. Headley did score five runs while reaching base by himself just once. His .063 batting average was bested by every pitching staff in the circuit. Headley was also just one of three position players who came to the plate and failed to drive home a teammate.

Whatever OF Craig Gentry was another Whatever who scored more runs than he had hits, nine runs to eight hits. Second round pick CF Adam Jones had a solid season, hitting .283 with 33 RBIs. Jones slugged 10 doubles and 14 homers.

Whatever C Wilson Ramos was never confused with his teammate, the speedy Gentry. Ramos hit seven homers but could only leg out a pair of doubles. Three Whatever hurlers fanned more batters than innings pitched. Yu Darish, the team's first round pick, fanned 111 batters in 89.7 innings of work. The righthander finished with a 5-5 record and an ERA of 4.22. Mike Minor, another draftee, fanned 58 in 57.7 innings. Reliever Sam LeCure fanned 28 in 27.3 innings.

All-time OAPBA saves leader, Mariano Rivera, closed out his league career with the Whatever, adding another 19 save, second in the league. Rivera also walked just four batters in 21.7 innings and finished with an era of 1.66. That mark was the best in the bullpen. The What staff earned a reputation for head hunting, however, with their pitchers recording the most hit batsmen.

Turfbeaters

The Turfbeaters made a strong run toward the playoffs but a lack of offensive punch down the stretch hurt the sodden sluggers. The Turfies scored the third fewest runs in OAPBA while finishing in the middle of the pack in team ERA. First round pick Yadier Molina was the league's top backstop. His average was second best among catchers, but he led the rest of his position mates in extra base hits and RBIs.

A lack of offensive punch was a reason the team struggled down the home stretch. They were the only team to lack a hitter with double figure home runs. Plus, Kyle Seager's 31 RBIs was the fewest of any team leader. Infielder D.J. LeMahieu didn't help the cause as he drove home just nine runs in 51 games. Ichiro Suzuki, a slap hitter throughout his OAPBA career, had an interesting power line.

He failed to hit a double in 57 games but he legged out a triple and slugged three home runs. C Wilin Rosario had three homers with a just one double.

Turfbeater baserunners led the league in stolen bases, tying the Road Warriors mark of 58. However the Turfies were caught seven times less than the Roadies. Jacoby Ellsbury led the team with 21 steals in 25 tries, an 84% success mark.

All-Star Reliever Koji Uehara (right) was the league's best out of the pen. He finished with a sparkling era of 0.91 while fanning 47 in 39.7 innings pitched. Uehara's six wins were the second most for any league reliever. His seven saves were also team high. Glen Perkins also had more strikeouts than innings pitched, 24 to 16.3.

Second round pick Hyun-Jin Ryu was activated for the second half and pitched well. The lefty had a 4-2 record with an era of 2.63, including a pair of shutouts. Ryu's strong showing made up for the loss of Clay Buchholz in the rotation, who sat out the second half after compiling a 6-2 record and a miniscule 0.84 ERA in eight starts in the first half.

The Turfbeaters Coco Crisp gave the Turfs their first win of the 2014 season with a pinch-hit three-run homer in the bottom of the 8th inning, off Beefer reliever Tanner Scheppers, to lead the Turfs to a comeback 9-7 win .

Road Warriors

As overall pitching improved in in OAPBA in 2014, the Road Warriors found themselves in a big offensive hole. The Roadies had the worst team batting average, on base percentage, and slugging percentage in the league. Their 224 runs scored topped just one team by one run.

The team's top draft picks didn't supply much help. First round pick Wil Myers was on the farm all season while second rounder, Jose Iglesias hit .217 with 13 RBIs in 54 games. The squad's offensive leader was LF Justin Upton, who led the Roadies with a .240 average, 13 homers, and 37 RBIs Other starters were much less productive. Jason Werth hit .208 with 18 RBIs. Backstop Russell Martin hit .160 with 14 RBIs. SS Troy Tulowitzki did hit .232 but drove home just 17 runs. Second baseman Brandon Phillips hit .160 with 16 RBIs.

Draftee Nolan Arenado (L) proved to be a valuable pick, hitting .226 with 26 RBIs, including a couple of game winners against the Devils. He led the circuit in triples with six. His defensive was also impressive. The Warriors liked to run. Pinch runner Rajai Davis led the league in steals with 37, but was cut down 12 times. Davis, however, scored just 12 runs. Pinch runner Jarrod Dyson scored a bit more often per steal, swiping seven sacks in 11 tries and scoring five runs. The Roadies were the only league team to have two players score more runs than they got on base under their own means. Davis and Dyson scored 17 runs while getting on base themselves, eight times.

The Roadies pitching was another story. The team era of 3.03 was third best in OAPBA. The starters were a consistent bunch with the six starters all having ERAs between 2.69 and 3.35. Only the Taz

Devils had a better ERA from their starters. Shelby Miller led the squad with a 6-5 record while Jared Weaver had the team's best ERA at 2.69.

Greg Holland had a frustrating season, dropping six games, the second most relief losses in the league. He did have 12 saves and fanned 53 batters in just 38.3 innings. Another flame-thrower, Kenley Jansen, fanned more batters than innings pitched, 48 Ks in 38.3 IP.

The Road Warriors were able to hold opponents to two or less runs 35 times, in almost half their games, with a record of 27-8. But as soon as the opponent scored at least three runs, which they did 43 times the Road Warriors record fell to an abysmal 6-37. If their opponent scored four or more runs, the Roadies could write it off, mustering a frustrating 2-26 record when giving up four or more runs

Otters

Fourth year expansion team, Jonathan Stilwell's Otters, played torrid baseball in the second half and advanced to the league championship. The Furry Ones advanced by showing plenty of offensive power, finishing second in the league in home runs and slugging percentage and third in runs scored. They tied for the league lead with 16 triples and led in team doubles. The normal speedy river clowns had the second fewest stolen bases on the season. Their defense was also lock down tight. They made just 29 errors, nine fewer than the next best team.

The pitching staff benefited from the non-porous defense, allowing just 19 unearned runs. J.P. Howell (right) out of the bullpen, led the staff with seven wins, which was also the most by any relief pitcher. Joe Nathan was a shutdown closer with 15 saves with 24 strikeouts in 21.7 innings pitched. The staff bullpen had the most relief wins in the league with a 17-8 record. The starters however were one game under .500 in won/loss.

The Otters served early notice that they had something going in 2014, when they grabbed a share of the lead league on March 9, taking three of four from the Taz Devils. The Otters improved to 9-7 to move into a tie for first place, the first time the Otters ever reached first place. The Otters won the opener 3-2 in 11 innings and, after dropping a 6-5 loss, topped the Devils 3-2 behind Bartolo Colon and 7-4, with Doug Fister getting the win.

First round draft pick, Jose Fernandez had a solid rookie season, going 5-3 with a 3.38 era and leading the team in whiffs. Fellow draftee Francisco Liriano led the team with eight defeats. The Otters also had just three wild pitches from the staff.

Daniel Nava paced the team in two categories, HBP and errors. Lefty bashers Chris Johnson and Cody Ross were well used, hitting .331 and .300 respectively. Otter pitchers tallied a double, a triple, and homer, the only team with such totals. And yet the hurlers drove home just three runs. Second round draft pick, Jean Segura, played 70 games and made just three errors while hitting .248 at shortstop.

Eight different players had double figure doubles and Khris Davis almost made it into double figures with nine two-baggers. But only one Otter had double figure homers, Jose Bautista, with 16.

Otters OF Daniel Nava and C Miguel Montero had a great series in a first-half split with the Beefers. Nava had three doubles and a HR while Montero was 4-11 with a double and a HR. In the same series, Beefer CF Andrew McCutchen hit three home runs.

Taz Devils

The team with the best record in the league, failed for the second straight year to advance to the league championship. The Devils seem to be able to post strong seasonal records but struggled to win the big series.

The Tazzies had the league's best pitching staff with an era of 2.74. They had three starters with sub 2.00 era's. Clayton Kershaw 1.96, Alex Cobb 1.79, and Kris Medlen 1.69. Only Kershaw qualified for the league's era title. The other three starters all had sub-four ERAs. Matt Moore was the hard luck starter, losing nine games while having a 3.63 ERA. The league as a whole, committed four balks, with the Tazzies committed two of them.

The team's bullpen, while finishing with a sub 3.00 era, did have 10 losses to go with 10 wins. The league's highest rated reliever, Kevin Siegrist, a "29", finished with a 1-4 record and a 3.71 era. Opponents apparently didn't fear the reliever. Trevor Rosenthal could strike out hitters, fanning 48 in 40.7 innings but finished with a puffy 5.09 era.

C Brian McCann didn't step to the plate to walk, taking just three free passes in his 28 games. He also preferred to homer rather than leg out doubles, with six homers and three doubles. Paul Goldschmidt was a frustrating hitter, he did tie for the team lead in RBIs with 40, but led the league in GIDPs with 13. Devil pitchers were the worst offensive bunch in the league, hitting just .064. Devil hitters were the league's favorite target, leading OAPBA in HBP.

Second round draftee Josh Donaldson played a solid third base, hitting .241 while scoring 32 bases. Shin-Soo Choo, who came to the team in a trade for the Devil's first round pick, was the team MVP. Shortstop Ian Desmond, who fanned 83 times, once struck out five times in a game and had a streak of 11 straight games with a whiff. Desmond also was a risk on the base paths, getting caught stealing nine times. AJ Ellis had the most at bats of any players to not drive home a run. Lefty crusher, Jeff Baker, hit .326 with 13 RBIs in 46 at bats against southpaws.

The Taz Devils slammed four homers in the first three innings in a 5-1 first-half win over the Turfbeatars. Ian Desmond hit two home runs and Paul Goldschmidt and Buster Posey also got into the act with long balls in the early part of the game.

Piranhas

The fighting fish struggled again in 2014. The Piranhas the league's fewest runs and were the only team to give 300+ runs, with 336. Adding in the fact that the team grounded into the most double plays and their pitchers the most errors and a clear pattern emerges.

Jose Quintana (R) dropped 10 decisions while picking two wins. Three Piranha starters lost seven games and another dropped six. The starters were 18 games .500. The starters had the worst ERA among league starting staffs. The Fish used the fewest relievers on the scored up made up just under season.

The Piranhas got off to a 6-6 start in the first half by taking three from the Otters, knocking the Furry Ones out of their tie for first place after the Otters had moved into a tie for the top spot. The Piranhas Joaquin Benoit earned his third save in a 5-3 opening game win. Cliff Lee threw a three-hit shutout in Game Two. After the Otters won 6-3, James Shields outpitched Otters RHP Bartolo Colon in a tense 3-2 victory.

The team's relief era was almost a full run lower than the starters. Four relievers; Joaquin Benoit, Tyler Clippard, Luke Gregerson, and Jesse Crain were very striking. They all fanned more batters than innings pitched. Benoit led the team with nine saves to go with a nifty .054 ERA.

Second round draft pick Ervin Santana lead the team with a 6-6 record and a team best 2.74 era. First round draftee, Robinson Cano, was the team's best all-around player, leading the Piranhas in homers, RBIs, runs scored, and walks. His average was second best on the club.

The Crimson Keister, C A.J. Pierzynski, preferred homers to legging out doubles. Pierzynski, had six homers to just one two bagger. He also disdained walks, earning just a pair of free passes in 56 games played.

David Ortiz was the only league player, who reached base, who failed to score. Danny Murphy and Torii Hunter interestingly averaged one RBI per game played.

Piranhas are not noted for their ability to move quickly out of the water. Once again, they struggled to steal bases. They swiped only eight bags in 24 base-stealing attempts. Annually the Piranhas have had the league's worst success ratio in stealing bases.

The Piranhas slugged four homers in an early season 8-5 loss to the Whatever's. Unfortunately for the Fish, all four homers were solo shots, three of them off What starter Adam Wainwright. Martin Prado hit two solo home runs and Robinson Cano and Bryce Harper also went deep.

Beefers

The Beefers slugged their way to the team's first championship. The bovine beltters led the league in homers, triples, and slugging percentage. Eight players had 10 or more doubles and four had double figure homers. 2013 RBI leader, Adrian Beltre, again delivered big offensive numbers in 2014. Beltre knocked home 58 runs with 19 homers. 2013 league MVP, Andrew McCutchen led the circuit in runs scored.

C Matt Wieters hit some long ones for Beefs, slugging 10 homers with just four doubles. Beefers backstops however didn't show much for batting average. Wieters hit .176 while platoon mate Yan Gomes hit .161. Beefers pitchers helped their cause, with the highest batting average of league's hurlers, with the second best total of RBI. They also legged out seven doubles after failing to generate a single extra base hit in 2013.

Five relievers had saves as the team used seven hurlers out of the bullpen. The Beefs had the busiest bullpen in OAPBA and it had the best bullpen era overall at 2.19. Seth Maness (right) had an 0.79 ERA, the best in the bullpen staff.

Righty starter Max Scherzer finished with a 6-7 record, but tied Devils ace Clayton Kershaw with 115 Ks, with Scherzer throwing 109 innings. But it was Hisashi Iwakuma who was the staff leader with an 8-3 record and a staff-best 2.29 ERA. The reliance on the bullpen meant the Beefers had the second-fewest complete games.

While the Beefers led the league in homers, their pitchers were the least generous in serving up taters. Both the starting staff and relievers gave up fewer homers than their opponents' staffs. Even though the bullpen had a 2.19 ERA, they had a losing record of 12-15. The main culprit was Ryan Cook, who lost six games against just one win.

The game that would not end. The Beefers beat the Road Warriors 6-5 in 19 innings in the first half. After the Beefs Michael Cuddyer tied the game in the eighth with a home run, both teams were scoreless for the next 10 innings with Beefer relievers throwing nine straight no-hit innings. The game ended when Beefer CF Andrew McCutchen homered in the 19th off Roadie reliever Drew Smyly.

a- Travelers 2005, Platoon II 2008 thru 2013

The original Platoon franchise was active through 2002, after which time the franchise was redispersed when Joe Passiatore dropped out of the league. The Platoon II franchise represents the Merchantainers (later Travelers) franchise formed in the Dispersal Entry Draft of 2003. Passiatore took over the franchise in 2006 and re-named the Traveler franchise as the Platoon, which is identified as Platoon II above for purposes of clarity.
