MANAGE A MAJOR LEAGUE TEAM IN YOUR OWN HOME!

Play the APBA Major League
Baseball Game

APBA is a new and different, scientific baseball game comprised of the Major League players themselves—120 players—all 16 Major League teams are represented.

In APBA they perform exactly as in real life. In batting, slugging, base stealing, fielding and pitching their records and averages will always be unbelievably similar.

Yet your own management of them will affect their winning and losing, for you must decide when to sacrifice and intentionally walk a batter. You, the manager, call the infield in for a play at the plate and you select the relief pitchers and pinch hitters.

Replay the World Series, the All Star game, or entire season's schedule. Form your own leagues. No matter how the APBA game is played, each player will perform according to his actual abilities.

The APBA Major League Baseball Game is not a toy or a mere game of chance, but an adult game resulting from twenty years' study and baseball research. If you are a baseball fan and understand inside baseball, you will be endlessly fascinated with it.

The APBA game is the most realistic and scientific baseball game yet devised—all 16 Major League teams are represented—320 players.

In APBA the players perform exactly as in real life. Their batting, slugging, base stealing, fielding and pitching will always be unbelievably similar to their actual records.

Yet your own management of them will affect their winning and losing, for you must decide when to sacrifice and intentionally walk a batter. You, the manager, call the infield in for a play at the plate and you select the relief pitchers and pinch hitters.
