Edward Mark DiLenno, a resident of Warminster for the past 19 years, passed away Sunday, March 14, 2010, at Robert Wood Johnson Memorial Hospital. He was 51.

He was the husband of Leslie (Stein) DiLenno.

Born in Philadelphia, he was the son of Margaret and the late Edward DiLenno.

He was a beloved member of the APBA baseball community for many years, playing with his friends and his son. He helped out in the youth sports community for his children, serving as coach, commissioner, and statistician.

No words can describe the kind of father he was to his children. His smile made his wife's day begin and end happily. He was a rock to his family and the best father and husband for whom anyone could ask.
