

Jeffrey B. Davis: Newspaper Obituary and Death Notice

Messenger-Gazette, The (Somerville, NJ) - Thursday, August 5, 2010

HILLSBOROUGH - Jeffrey B. Davis, 56, of Hillsborough passed away in the University Medical Center at Princeton on Thursday, July 22, 2010, after a long and courageous battle with cancer.

Jeffrey was born in Winston-Salem, N.C., and lived in Murray Hill for many years before moving to Hillsborough 25 years ago. He is a graduate of Governor Livingston High School and earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Fairleigh Dickinson University in Madison. He worked for the U.S. Golf Association for 15 years in computer operations before retiring in 2007.

Jeffrey enjoyed entertaining family and friends. He also had a passion for sports cars, boats and spending time at the beach. He shared his love of life with family and friends. He will be greatly missed by many.

He leaves behind many who loved him dearly. He was the beloved husband of Linda (nee Heindel) for 24 years, loving father of Shelby Davis of Hillsborough, devoted son of Allie Davis (nee Culler) of Murray Hill and the late Andrew J. Davis. He is the dear twin brother of Michael Davis and his wife Rebecca of Nevada and brother of John Davis and his wife Jane of Maryland, and the late Andrew Davis. He is the beloved nephew of Peggy Massey and husband James of North Carolina and Robert J. Davis of Tennessee; and brother-in-law and uncle of his wife's 11 siblings and many nieces and nephews. Jeffrey is also survived by many dear friends.

The Davis family thanks the medical and nursing staff at Mount Sinai Medical Center in New York City and the University Medical Center at Princeton.

The visitation will be at Paul Ippolito Berkeley Memorial, 646 Springfield Ave., Berkeley Hts., NJ on Tuesday, July 27th, from 2-4 and 7-9 PM.

The funeral service was held yesterday at the New Providence United Methodist Church, followed by entombment in Somerset Hills Memorial Park, Basking Ridge. To send condolences, visit ippolitofuneralhomes.com.

Memorial donations can be made to the American Children's Society at childrenscharities.com or any cancer charity.

SOMERVILLE - Charles Alexander "Charlie" Bathory, 55, died unexpectedly on July 17, 2010 of a heart attack at Somerset Medical Center.

He was a 1972 graduate of Somerville High School earned a bachelor's degree with a dual major in anthropology and sociology from Monmouth College in 1977 and two associates degrees from Somerset Community College (1979 in chemistry and 2004 in paralegal studies).

He lived his entire life in Somerville. He loved to cook and was a chef at the Feathered Frog and other restaurants around Somerville. He enjoyed reading, writing, playing APBA baseball, surfing the Internet (chalba@hotmail.com) and taking care of his cat.

Surviving are his parents, Helen and Charles; his younger brother, David; and his cat, Ollie.

Arrangements were handled by the Bruce C. Van Arsdale Funeral Home and a memorial service will be held at a later date. Memorial donations can be made to the American Heart Association, americanheart.org, or Neurofibromatosis Inc. nfinc.org.