

JOHN SNADER, 62, RETIRED SALESMAN: Newspaper Obituary and Death Notice

Lancaster New Era (PA) - Friday, June 9, 1995

John S. "Jack" Snader, former president of the Conestoga Toastmasters, died at home Thursday after an illness of several months. He was 62.

He lived at 513 Wallingford Road with his wife, Peggy A. Leisy Snader. The couple celebrated their 43rd wedding anniversary Feb. 24.

He was a member of the All Saints Anglican Church, the Andrew Hershey Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons and enjoyed playing APBA games in a club.

He retired from United Plastic Corp., Manheim, where he was a salesman for 17 years.

A 1951 graduate of J.P. McCaskey High School, he attended Franklin and Marshall College.

Born in Lancaster, he was the son of the late Charles J. and Eva H. Little Snader Sr.

Surviving, in addition to his wife, are a daughter, Ann L., wife of R.T. Leicht, Marshallton, Del.; a son, J. Stanley Snader Jr., Perry Hall, Md.; three grandchildren and one brother, Charles J. Snader Jr., Lancaster.

Page: B-3

All content (c) 1995 Lancaster Newspapers Inc. and may not be republished without permission.