

Nelson Warren: Newspaper Obituary and Death Notice

Brattleboro Reformer (VT) - Wednesday, February 9, 2005

KEENE, N.H. -- Nelson L. Warren, 62, of 127 Meadow Road, died Saturday afternoon, Feb. 5, 2005, at the Cheshire Medical Center, following a period of failing health.

He was born in Brattleboro, Vt., on Jan. 25, 1943.

Mr. Warren grew up in Hinsdale, graduating in 1961 from Hinsdale High School. He has been a resident of Keene for over 40 years where he worked for 12 years with Schleicher and Schuell, Inc. of Keene and most recently, for five years as shift supervisor with CVS Pharmacy of Keene.

He was an avid baseball fan and collector of APBA baseball cards. For many years he coached several teams within the Greater Keene Women's Softball Association. He was past editor of the National Grange Mutual Insurance Company's newspaper, and he enjoyed NASCAR and bowling.

He is survived by his wife of 39 years, Ruth O. (Fischer) Warren of Keene; his mother and step-father, Grace A. and Homer Worden of Hinsdale; a brother, Richard Worden of Hinsdale; a sister, Bea Dalton of Exeter; and several nieces and nephews.

At Mr. Warren's request, funeral services will be private.

For those who wish, donations may be made in Mr. Warren's memory to the Keene Community Kitchen, P.O. Box 1315, Keene, NH 03431 or to HCS Meals on Wheels, 312 Marlboro St., Keene, NH 03431.

The FOLEY FUNERAL HOME, 49 Court St., in Keene, is in charge of the arrangements.u
